The two men, taking advantage of the time allowed them for exercise in the hall, entered a cell adjoining their own and undertook to cut away the mortar from a stone in the floor, with the expectation of getting into the basement and thence into the yard. They showed considerable ingenuity in concealing the evidence of their work by filling in the interstices with soap, but the sharp eye of the jailor detected the fraud before they had made much headway. Both were put on bread and water for a few days.

COMENCEMENT EXERCISES. — Last Friday evening the commencement exercises of the Martin's Ferry High School took place in the Presbyterian Church, which was densely crowded. The exercises were in every way creditable to Prof. Shreve as Superintendent, Miss Coffin as teacher of the High School, and Mr. Schofield as musical director. The graduating class was composed of Misses Kate Griffith, Kate Anderson, Ida Cochran, Lucy Wood, Winnie Hayne and Cora Stone. Their essays were pronounced by everybody as some of the best which have ever been read in that school.

night. She was formerly a teacher in the school here.

Prof. Shreve and Miss Coffin certainly should be satisfied with the result of the commencement exercises of the High School, for they were a success. The Presbyterian Church was packed full; asises, windows and every place where a sitting could be had. The exercises were opened with prayer by Mr. Black, Supt. of the St. Clairsville school.

The essays as read by the graduating class were all good, and I will not select any one as being better than the rest, for each was a treat in itself; eachs one of the young ladies received from ten to twenty bouquets from their friends. Miss Ida Cochran received the most beautiful one, it being the gift of her gentlemen friends of the reading room "society."

always been the music rendered by the school. For years past the Board have had the wisdom to retain the services of Prof. Schofield as teacher of music in the schools, and it pays. In order to give your readers an idea of a part of the musical education of the scholars, I will mention some of the pieces sung last evening: "The Angel of Penitence," by Spitts; this composition is written in a sixelight movement, and is very difficult to render, because of its harmonious progression; it was well rendered, the pitch and accent being retained throughout. "Pilgrim's Chorus," by Verdi; this is the author's best in twelve-eight movement, and is mostly in unison, but in the trio the voices retained a roundness and fullness that only comes after much practice; it was received with enthusiastic applause. "Slumber, Dearest," by Palmer; this is a pleasant serenade, and its rendition produced a happy effect upon the audience. "Charity," solo and chorus, by Rossini; this was the masterpiece of the programme. This is a 12-8 movement and is largely chromatic in solo and chorus (ladies). The modulations were rendered in masterly style; the solo requires delicacy, flexibility and extraordinary compass of voice extending to B flat, after the soloist has been retained at G and A flat during the previous parts of the composition. The soloist, Miss Mattie Wallace, though young, evidences rare ability in power and compass of voice. She won laurels in the rendition of this beautiful and difficult solo.

There were other pieces which were very difficult, but the manner in which they were sung showed that much care had been taken with the scholars, for the Professor never allows them to sing before the public until they have mastered the piece.

EMERSON'S MINSTRELA.—This excellent company of burnt cork artists appeared at Washington Hall on Saturday evening, before a large and intelligent audience, composed in part of some of our best families, and they all were highly entertained, as the performance was first-class in every respect. The end men, Emerson and Morton, are very fine. Emerson quaint way of telling his jokee and witticisms established him as a great favorite with the audience at once. The singing of the quintette was excellent, and displayed remarkable and well cultivated voices. Mr. Emerson, in his specialties, may well be called a monarch. His ease, grace and style we have never before seen equalled. He drew forth deserved appliause, receiving encore after encore. For

In this course of his remarks he alluded to what was necessary to build up churches, saying, among other things, that it must proceed from its spiritual life, and not from its conformity to the world in any sense. There was a good deal of interest manifested at the English Lutheran Church yesterday. At 10½ A. M. the pastor preached on the ascension of Christ, from John VI: 62. "What and if ye shall see the Son of Man sacend up where he was before?" At 2 o'clock the Sunday School held its regular session, and at 3½ o'clock a special service of prayer was held for blessings upon the coming excursion of the school. In the evening the sermon was from Daniel V:27, on "Being weighed in the balances." It was annoteed that the church would be open every Sunday during the summer, the pastor officiating. Beautiful flowers adorned the pulpit and font, the gift of members of the church and supplemented by their warm friend, Thomas Hornbrook, £44.

ORTUARY.—Miss Ella Zune, daughter of E. E. Zune, Erq., died at the residence of her father, on Penn street, Saturday afternoon last, of typhold fever, after a brief illness. Deceased was little more than sixteen years of age, yet she had endeared herself to a large circle of relatives and friends, who sincerely mourn her early death. She was a bright, intelligent girl, and one of the most promising pupils of the Seventh Ward public school, where she was a great favorite with both pupils and teachers.—Her death was symbolical of the sweatness and purity which ever characterized her life. A little while before she breathed her last she clapsed her mother's hand in hers, and sang in a low, sweet twice the closing verse of the "Sweet by and by," and with the last words of that beautiful hymn upon her lips her spirit took its flight. The schoolmates of deceased will this morning go in a body to the residence of the breaved family and look for the last time upon the face of their friend. The funeral will take place at 2 P. M. Logan, List & Co., Wholesale Agents. IS YOUR HAIR THIN OR FALLING OUT WHO FELL OUT OF A MCLURE HOUSE WINDOW.—It is with much regret that we announce the death of Albert Camp bed, the young waynesourg minimaman who walked out of a window in the third story of the McLure House, while in a somnambulistic state, on Friday morning last. Campbell's condition was considered very favorable for his recovery on Friday night and Saturday, but yesterday morning he was not so well, and in the afternoon he was much worse. Toward evening he began to sink rapidly, and continued to fail until death relieved him of his sulf-rings, at 930 p. M. The wife, father, brother and aunt of the unfortunate man were at his bedside when he died, His uncle returned home on Saturday.

The remains will be forwarded to. Waynesburg at 5:20 o'clock this morning, over the Hempfield Road. The three military companies of the city will turn out and escort the remains to the depot, and a detachment of twelve volunteers will accompany them to Waynesburg. "ITCHING PILES"—Is a very prevalent and distressing complaint, the symptoms of which are moisture, like perspiration, intense itching, particularly at night, when undressing, or after getting warm in bed, might think pin-worms were crawling in and about the rectum; the private parts are sometimes affected. Do not suffer another hour, and allow them to become aggravating while you have a pleasant and sure cure in "Swayne's Ointment." Also cures teter and all skin diseases. Mailed to any address on receipt of price, 50 cents TEMPERANCE NOTES.—The meeting at Mozart Hall on Saturday evening was addressed by Mesars, G. W. Baggs, M. Gregg and Hiram Young.
Mrs. Woodside presided at the meeting held at Mozart Hall yesterday afternoon, under the auspices of the Women's Temperance Band.

Milet to the Wang and Rain Strindiseases. Malled to any address on receipt of price, 50 cents above, or three boxes $1.25. Address letters to Dr. Swapne & Son, Philadelphia, or to the Wheeling agents, Logan, List & Co. Sold by all leading druggists at wholesale by Logan, List & Co.

AN UNDENIABLE TRUTH.—You deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable, unsatisfactory life in this beautifal world, it is entirely your own fault and there is only one excuse fog you.—your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning will soon show you that Green's August Flower will cure you of Liver Complainty or Dysepenia, with all its miserable effects, such as sick headache, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, habitual costiveness, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, low spirits, dc. Its sales now reach every town on the Western Continent and not a Druggist but will tell you of its wonderful cures. You can huy a Sample Bottle for 10 cents. Three doses will relieve you. under the auspices of the woman's americal perance Band.
Rev. O. P. Miller addressed a meeting at Parker's Hall yeaterday afternoon.
Last night's meeting at Mozart Hall was conducted by Mr. Sam. Creyton. Messre, John Westwood and Hiram Young delivered addresses. There was one signer to the pledge. MORE ROOM FOR BUSINESS.-The P. W. More Room for Business.—The P. W. & Ky. Company have commenced putting in piles on the west side of their freight depot. On these they will put a platform or wagon way to facilitate the delivery of freight. Heretofore drays have been getting the freight from the west side by going in between the platforms on the track. When the cars are being either loaded or unloaded this method had to be suspended, causing delay in the delivery of freight. The new arrangement will obviate the difficulty.

C. H. BOOTH & SONS. Sounds from the Sham Battle.—On Friday evening last a little daughter of Stephen Devinney, residing in the Sixth Ward, had an eye put out by the discharge of a blauk cartridge which her brother had picked up on the Fair Grounds during the sham battle. The boy used a hammer to explode the cartridges, and during his absence the little girl, who is about five or six years of age, took the hammer and struck the cartridge with the result named.
